Dear Friends,

Greetings to you in God's amazing grace! Though life and ministry can be full of challenges, it is good for us to consider the Lord's goodness and blessings. Our family is looking forward to a few slower paced days to enjoy one another in the Lord and to celebrate his watchful care and provisions. This Thanksgiving season we're thankful for:

- A full night's sleep when it's available.
- Coile family homeschool.
- Sweet potato pie.
- Fellowship with kindred brothers and sisters.
- Warm clothes.
- Venison tenderloin.
- The Bible, God's Word.
- Our home base.
- Safe travels.
- Great memories of good times.
- Clear presentations of the Gospel.
- The sunny South, especially in Winter.
- Salvation, full and free.
- And we are so thankful for you, our friends, financial supporters, prayer warriors, and encouragers who undergird us and make this ministry keep on keeping on!

We hope you join with us across the miles and deeply enjoy this season of Thanksgiving.

The Bible Says...

“Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.”

- Philippians 4:11

Since Christ gives us His strength we can be satisfied in whatever physical state we are in. It doesn't take riches, or even fulness, for a child of God to be joyful - who has the correct attitude.

As long as a person feels owed, joy will be out of reach. It is in the realization of our blessed position in Christ's grace, apart from physical things, that thanksgiving becomes a lifestyle.

Gripped in His grace,

Freddie, for the whole family

*Happy
Thanksgiving!*
