

A PERSONAL WORD

From the Coile family

November 12, 2024

Happy Thanksgiving!

We have so much to be thankful for . . .

We're thankful for Freddie's legacy. He helped so many people spiritually. How grateful we are for the many memories we have with him, and that we will see him again.

We're thankful for our home, our little cabin in the woods that Dad built thirty years ago.

We're thankful for the rights we have in America—especially the ability to homeschool.

We're thankful to be able to live and work in the USA, a country whose greatness can be explained only through Divine Providence.

We're thankful for the crispness of fall.

We're thankful for the ministry of Grace Farm that has meant so much to so many people.

We're thankful to be part of a family that is committed to serving the Lord.

We're thankful for friends who are like family to us.

We're thankful for Josiah, a gifted speaker and a wise and godly leader.

We're thankful for Denita, Josiah's wonderful wife.

We're thankful for the Word of God, the all-time, worldwide bestseller book. We're thankful that it does not return void, but accomplishes what God sent it to do (Isaiah 55:11).

We're thankful for the free gift of salvation.

"In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you."

1 Thessalonians 5:18

We're thankful for God's amazing grace. The same grace that saved us also teaches us how to live (Titus 2:11-12).

We're thankful that despite all our hang-ups, mess-ups, and shortcomings, God still chooses to use us.

We're thankful for the goodness of God that never changes, no matter how difficult our circumstances are.

We're thankful for you, our gracious supporters. We can't thank you enough for what you do, and we couldn't do our ministries without you.

From our family to yours, Happy Thanksgiving!
